

A Consensus Approach to Supply Chain Oversight

Bill Wagner, VP & General Manager / PRI

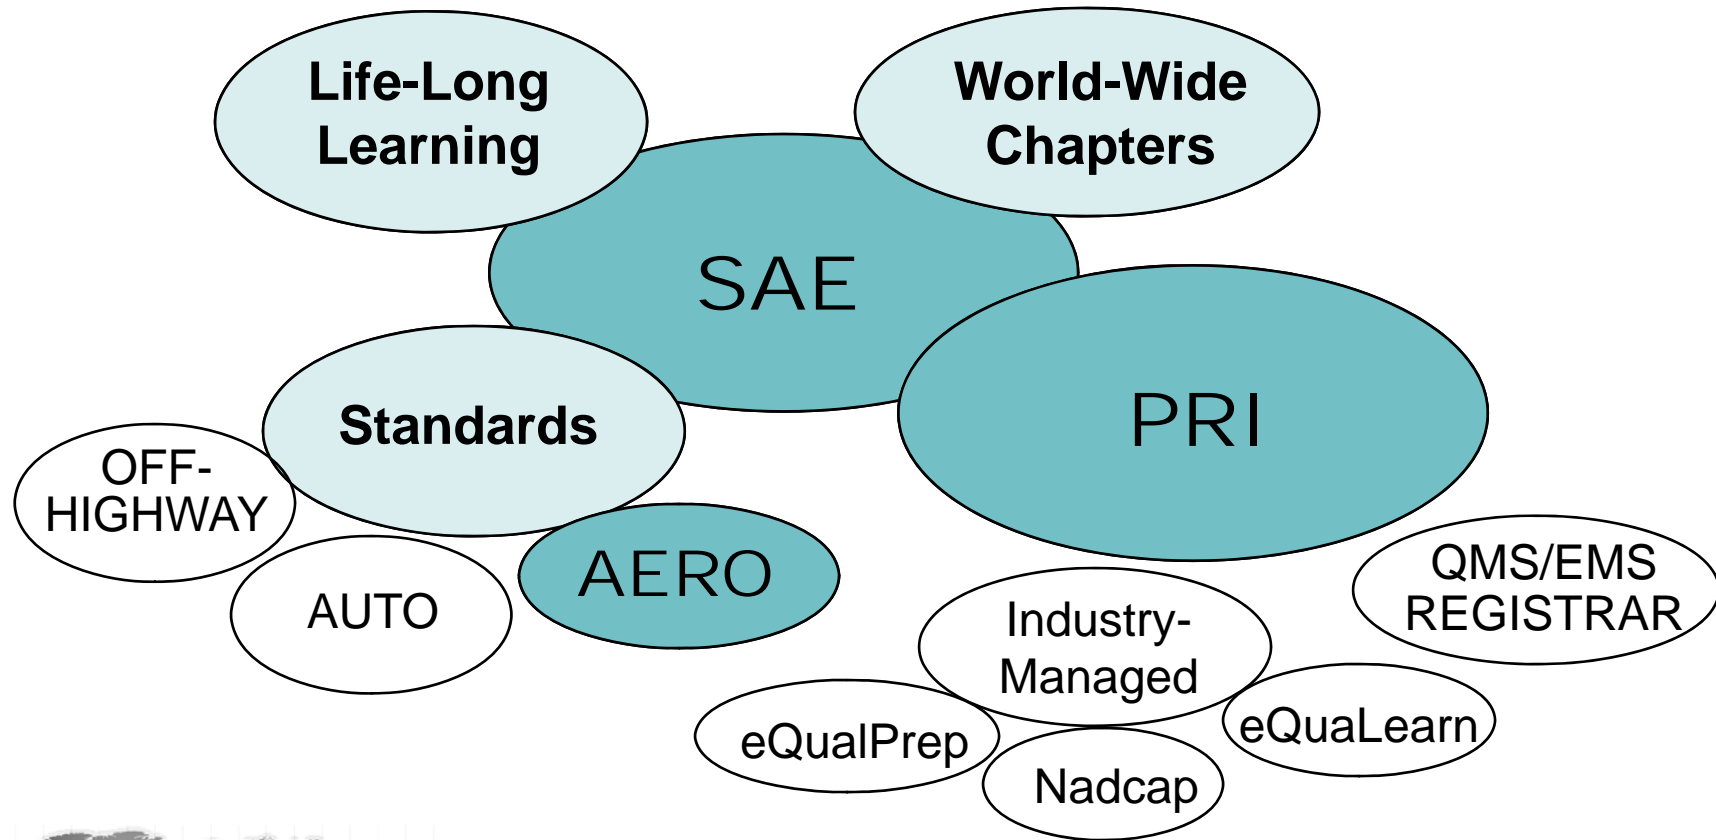

March 3, 2010

The Issue

An Oversight Process that was Choking an Industry -- A Significant Pain Point Felt By All.

Origins

PRI – A Key Component of the SAE Enterprise

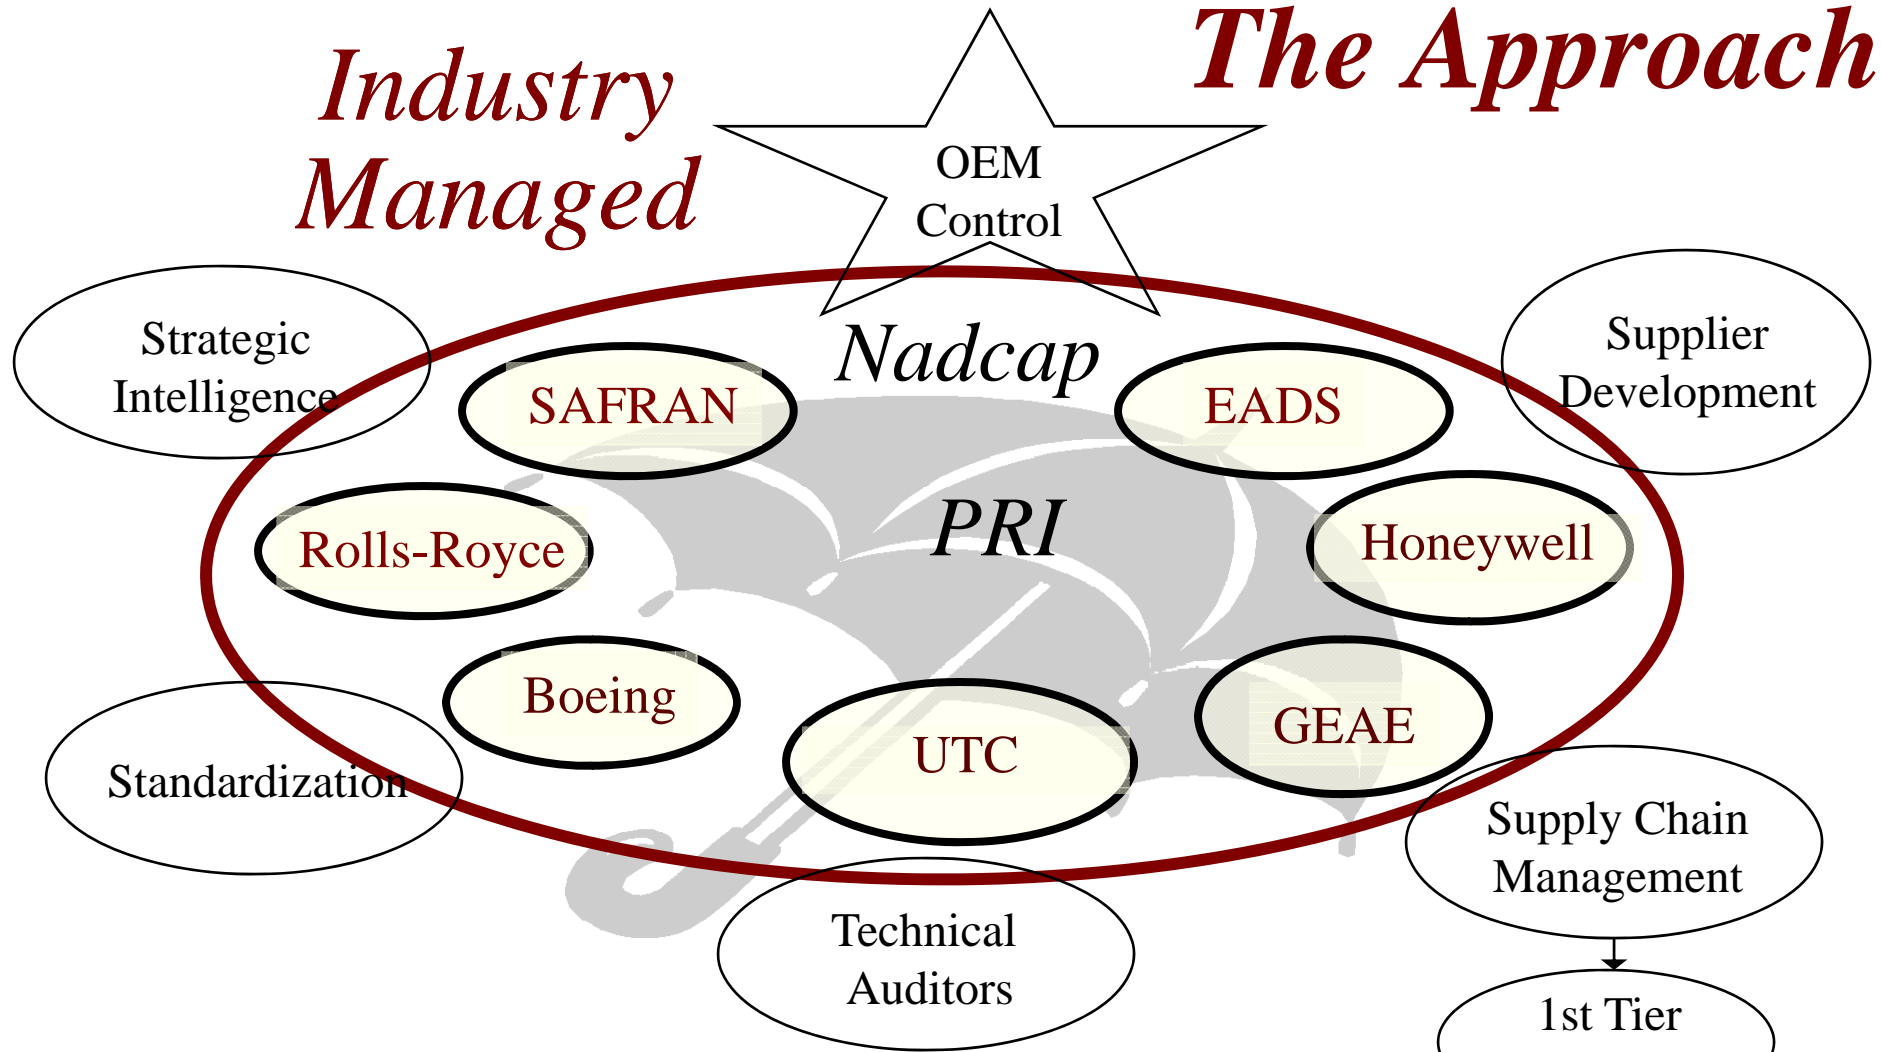

PRI Mission Statement

Our Mission is to provide a full range of programs and services designed to improve manufacturing process and product quality by adding value, reducing total cost and promoting teaming between global stakeholders in the mobility and other interested industries.

Industry Managed

The Approach

“PRIMES Working Together to Improve Supplier Quality and Reduce Costs”

The Advantages

- Globally Harmonized Process
- Economies of Scale
 - Auditor Expertise
 - Better use of Supplier & OEM Personnel
- Completely Transparent System
 - Common Software Support/Database
 - Train Wrecks Known to All in Real Time

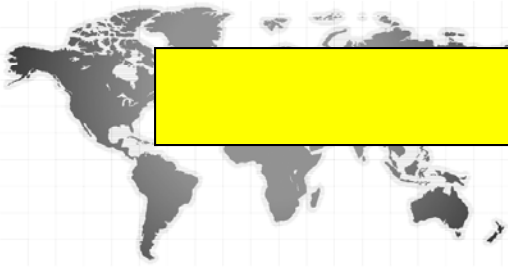

Then...

SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

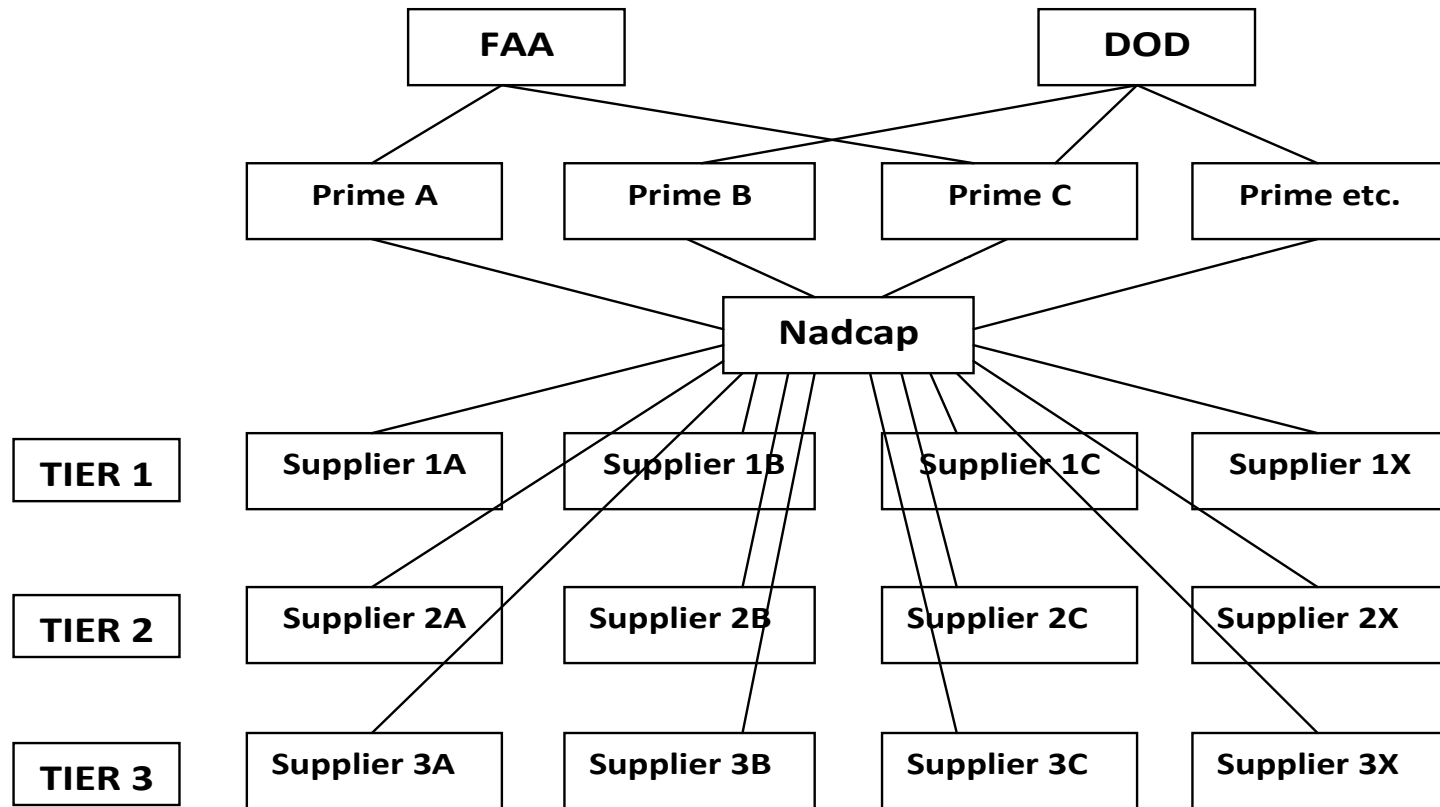

A Horrific Resource Drain!

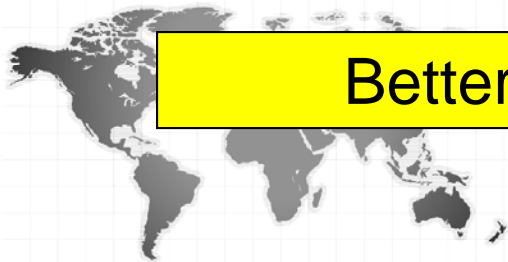

Now...

Nadcap - - ONE AUDIT SERVES ALL

Better Quality, Improved Safety, Less Cost!

Conclusion

“A Lean, Centralized, Harmonized Approach to Common Pain Points Can be a Very Effective and Efficient Solution.”

