

Cambridge Collaborative's SEAM® software is a Statistical Energy Analysis modeling package that allows prediction and analysis of the vibration and acoustic response of complex dynamic systems. Applications include automotive and aircraft interior noise and sound package design; analysis of automotive and aerospace structureborne vibration coupled to acoustics; aerospace launch environments; and radiated noise for ships, submarines, and machinery.

Contact for Information:

Chad Musser

cmusser@ccinc.com

(617)-876-5777

Fax:(617)-876-1816

689 Concord Ave.

Cambridge, MA 02138