

Technical Tour

Honeywell Aerospace Phoenix Engines Facility

Monday, October 29, 2012

2:00 – 4:30 p.m.

Cost: $30.00

Buses will begin boarding at 1:30 p.m. outside of the main entrance to the Marriott Hotel and depart promptly at 2:00 p.m. and return to Hotel at 4:30 p.m.

This walking tour will highlight turbine engine manufacturing and test in Phoenix. Honeywell manufactures a wide range of turbine engines in Phoenix including turbofan, turboshaft, turboprop, and auxiliary power units. A visit to the flight test line is also planned, with an opportunity to tour the Honeywell Boeing-757 flight test aircraft. There will also be an overview presentation of Honeywell products and capabilities. The tour will take 2-2.5 hours (from arrival to departure).
