Join SAE Today and Empower Yourself and Your Industry

As the leader in advancing mobility engineering, SAE International Membership is an asset—one that provides you with the value you need, at a cost you can afford. SAE membership is the most prestigious advantage you can have within the mobility industry today.

Join SAE's network of 132,000 members and start empowering yourself today:

- Technology Resources

Stay on top of what's happening in the industry and increase your technical knowledge through SAE conferences, technical papers, magazines, technical standards, and books.

- Career Enhancement and Professional Development

Learn at hundreds of SAE conferences, symposia and professional development courses, from the fundamentals to the advanced. Plus, SAE Members have access to the online Career Center and exclusive benefits including email job alerts and confidential resume posting.

- Networking

Make connections with engineers from around the world, at your local Section meetings, or through EngineerXchangeSM—an online professional network exclusive to SAE Members. Discuss the latest technical developments, standards, industry developments and more—all through SAE's world-wide networking channels.

- Leadership Opportunities and Recognition

Stand out by showcasing your expertise—present technical papers, serve on a standards committee, speak at meetings, volunteer for a leadership role, and mentor younger engineers. Plus, demonstrating this leadership gets you recognized through the SAE Awards and Recognition Program as well as leading to new career opportunities.
