

Call For Papers & Oral Presentations

April 8-10, 2025 | Detroit, Michigan

WCX is solving engineering problems with innovation and technology!

Submission Deadline: September 3, 2024

As a global automotive technical conference and exhibition, WCX is seeking solution providers to develop technical manuscripts and presentations for the engineering community. Take this opportunity to demonstrate your expertise and thought leadership by presenting your latest work and then network with engineers, executives, and researchers from the entire mobility supply chain.

Thousands of engineers from across the automotive community gather at WCX to learn about the latest technical knowledge and innovations, discuss real-world challenges and practical solutions, discover new technologies and techniques that will move the automotive industry to near net zero. Your expertise provides learning today and long term reference value in the future!

Virtually every facet of modern automotive mobility is featured at WCX - Seeking presentations and papers for:

- Advanced Propulsion (Electrification, Hybrid, Hydrogen)
- Advanced Powertrain
- Automotive Electronics
- Infrastructure
