

9100:2016 Series Auditor Training

It's coming....

In support of the 9100:2016 transition activity the IAQG OPMT is pleased to announce that the Auditor Bridge Training for the 9100:2016 series of standards will be available as follows:

- 9100 related training will be available November 30, 2016
- 9110 related training will be available January 10, 2017
- 9120 related training will be available January 10, 2017

This training will be required for currently authenticated auditors in order to audit the 9100:2016 series of standards. The training is offered as an online, web based training application. Details of the training packages and details may be viewed using the following link:

Auditor Training
Communications Pack

The IAQG OPMT encourages all currently authenticated auditors to obtain the new 9100:2016 series of standards and get familiar with the changes. In addition the key changes presentation developed by the IAQG Requirements Team may provide good insight and materials to assist auditors in preparing for a successful training experience.