

Edsel Ford and E.T. Gregorie

The Remarkable Design Team and Their Classic Fords of the 1930s and 1940s

List of Chapters:

- | | | | |
|--------------|--|---|---|
| Foreword | Chapter 11 | The 1935 - 1937 Fords
Years of Transition | |
| Preface | Chapter 12 | The 1938 Lincoln-Zephyr
"It's Going to Ruin Us" | |
| Introduction | Chapter 13 | The 1939 Lincoln-Zephyr
Continental
"The Most Beautiful Car
in the World" | |
| Chapter 1 | Mr. Gregorie and Mr. Ford
Designer and Patron | Chapter 14 | The 1938 - 1940 Fords
"From an Old Car to a New Car" |
| Chapter 2 | Ford Hires a Designer
"I've Been in Body Design
at Brewster" | Chapter 15 | The 1939 Mercury
"Just a Stylized Ford" |
| Chapter 3 | Edsel Ford
Styling Executive | Chapter 16 | The 1941 - 1948 Fords and
Mercurys
"That Hangdog Look" |
| Chapter 4 | The Ford Model Y
Gregorie's First Ford Design | Chapter 17 | Postwar Development
"A Little Ford and a Big Ford" |
| Chapter 5 | The 1933 and 1934 Fords
"Like a Man's Face" | Chapter 18 | The 1949 Mercury and Lincoln
The Last Hurrah |
| Chapter 6 | The Continental Car I
"Long, Low, and Rakish" | Chapter 19 | The End of an Era
"...An Extended Vacation" |
| Chapter 7 | The Continental Car II
Lower and Longer | Bibliography | |
| Chapter 8 | The 1936 Lincoln-Zephyr
"The First Successfully
Streamlined Car in America" | Index | |
| Chapter 9 | The Continental Car III
"I Like Right-Hand-Drive Cars" | About the Author | |
| Chapter 10 | The Ford Design Department
"Anything the Boy Wants" | | |